Hi everyone, we're back! I'm happy to announce that we are back and this time we're showing you some new and interesting mods for Magic the Gathering.We've made this new image in honor of all of our brothers and sisters in the Magic: the Gathering community! It was really a hard tournament. Here it is an article with which we will try to answer this question. The first of all I want to say that we are NOT the champions of the tournament but we are very happy for this. We had a very good group of players who played very well and have made the difference. Of course, we were also a group of people who did not play well, even if we could not win the tournament, but we will try to do better next time. Let's show you some images of the finals: FINAL That's it! We show you some images of the finals that was taken at the Tabletop Gaming Center in Cambridge.
